Civil Air Regulations Amendment 20-2
Effective: March 22, 1946

PILOT CERTIFICATE AND RATINGS

Effective March 22, 1946, Part 20 of the Civil Air Regulations is amended as follows:

20.12 Limited pilot certificate. A citizen of a foreign government who holds a currently effective pilot certificate or license issued by his government, upon submitting to the Administrator reliable evidence showing his pilot time and aeronautical experience may be issued a Limited Pilot Certificate appropriate to his pilot time and aeronautical experience shown. The holder of such certificate shall be familiar with the air traffic rules and shall not transport passengers or cargo where a charge is made for such transportation. The certificate shall contain such limitations as the Administrator finds necessary for safety, including but not limited to those which may be required by reason of the pilot's inability to speak and understand the English language.
