ORDER

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
FEDERAL AVIATION ADMINISTRATION

ALASKAN REGION

AL 8000.13C

February 21, 1986

SUBJ: . INSPECTORS OBTAINING ADDITIONAL RATINGS OR CERTIFICATES

1. PURPOSE. This order restates a procedure for Flight Standards inspectors to obtain additional ratings or certificates by means other than an approved formal course of training offered by the FAA. This revision delegates the Operations Specialist as the person to authorize and arrange for the practical test.

2. DISTRIBUTION. This directive is being distributed to regional Flight Standards Division staff and to Flight Standards district offices.

3. CANCELLATION. AL Order 8000.13B, Inspectors Obtaining Additional Ratings or Certificates, dated August 28, 1984, is cancelled.

4. ACTION. When inspectors are qualified for additional ratings or certificates and meet the requirements of the appropriate Federal Aviation Regulation, the following method shall be used to obtain them.

a. Written portions of the examination, if required, shall be administered with the consent and knowledge of the district office manager.

b. Practical examinations for the rating or certificate shall be authorized by the regional Operations Specialist, who will also arrange for a qualified person from another office to administer the required testing in accordance with FAA guidelines.

Thomas S. Westall

Manager, Flight Standards Division

Distribution: Initiated By: