SPECIAL NOTICE

Termination of Subscription Service

Civil Aeronautics Manual 20

The Federal Aviation Agency has issued a new Part 61-- Certification: Pilots and Flight Instructors, to become effective November 1, 1962, which supersedes Civil Aeronautics Manual 20, Pilot and Instructor Certificates, dated November 1, 1959.

This in line with the FAA's program, announced in November 1961, to recodify its Civil Air Regulations, Civil Aeronautics Manuals, and Regulations of the Administrator into a new single regulatory system of Federal Aviation Regulations. (This program is explained in Part 1--Definitions and Abbreviations [New] sent you in June 1962.)

Therefore, the enclosed new Part 61 completes your subscription to Civil Aeronautics Manual 20. Additional copies of the new Part 61 are available from the Superintendent of Documents at 30 cents per copy.

If you will complete the order blank in the front of Part 61 and forward it to the Federal Aviation Agency, you will automatically receive, without charge, any Changes issued to Part 61.
