CIVIL AERONAUTICS MANUALS—Volume III

Federal Aviation Agency

Civil Aeronautics Manuals and supplements thereto are issued by the Bureau of Flight Standards, Federal Aviation Agency, for the guidance of the public and are published in the Federal Register and the Code of Federal Regulations.

Supplement No. 9 March 1, 1959

SUBJECT: Revisions to CAM 18 dated February 1957.

This supplement adds new sections 18.30–12 (j) and 18.30–12 (k). Section 18.30–12 (j) presents storage battery installation hazards and preventive means for known alkaline types as well as the lead-acid type.

Section 18.30–12 (k) contains basic criteria to aid field personnel in approving circuit protection device modifications. In connection with this, a circuit protector chart, table 12–3, has been incorporated in appendix B.

New and revised material is indicated by brackets.
