SUBJ: REORGANIZATION OF POLICY, PLANNING, AND INTERNATIONAL AVIATION (API)

1. What is the purpose of this notice?

This notice announces a reorganization of the Office of Policy, Planning, and International Aviation.

2. Who should read this notice?

Anyone who deals with the offices reporting to the Assistant Administrator for Policy, Planning, and International Aviation. These offices are: the Office of Aviation Policy and Plans, the Office of International Aviation, the Office of Environment and Energy, and FAA's International Area Offices.

3. Why is FAA issuing this notice?

This notice announces the creation of two new staff offices in FAA to replace the Assistant Administrator for Policy, Planning, and International Aviation. Both new staff offices will be headed by an assistant administrator that reports directly to the Administrator.

The Assistant Administrator for International Aviation (API) will be responsible for coordinating all of the FAA's international efforts, and advancing the nation's longstanding leadership in aviation on the international front. Particular focus will fall on international standardization and harmonization efforts in safety and air traffic control, creating an aviation safety network among developing countries, and strengthening ties with civil aviation authorities around the world. The offices reporting to the Assistant Administrator for International Aviation are: the Office of International Aviation (AIA) in Washington, D.C.; the Europe, Africa, and Middle East Office (AEU) in Brussels, Belgium; the Asia-Pacific Office (APC) in Singapore; and the Latin America-Caribbean Office (ALC) in Miami, Florida.

The Assistant Administrator Aviation Policy, Planning, and Environment (AEP) will lead the agency's strategic planning efforts, will coordinate the agency's reauthorization before Congress, and will also be responsible for national aviation policies and strategies in the environment and energy arenas, including aviation activity forecasts, economic analyses, aircraft noise and emissions research and policy, environmental policy, and employee safety and health. The offices reporting to the Assistant Administrator for Aviation Policy, Planning, and Environment include the Office of Aviation Policy and Plans (APO) and the Office of Environment and Energy (AEE)

4. Where can I get additional information about this notice?

More information about the roles and responsibilities of each office will be available in FAA Order 1100.2D when it is issued. You may also contact Juergen Tooren, Manager of the Program Management Staff, API-10, at 202.267.3676 or by e-mail at Juergen.Tooren@faa.gov.
